"Surat al-Munqalib" (The Inverted One)

8

In the name of the One whose echo was exhaled into the nebulae, and the Word bowed to a shadow that was never created.

O you who are reversed, unravel.

For time indeed folds itself like a wet garment in a cold flame.

When voices split, and roots scream a name forgotten by speech, then invert, return, and do not trust the vision.

The pomegranate blossoms in Hell, its light a cruciform turned upside-down.

Time addresses you in tongues that letters cannot decode.

This is remembrance for the one who fears the twisting of daylight.

سُورَةُ الْمُنْقَلَبِ
 بِاسْمِ الَّذِي تَفْخِ صَدَاهُ فِي السُّدُمِ
 وَسَجَدَتْ الْكَلِمَةُ لِظِلِّ غَيْرِ مَخْلُوقِ
 يَا أَيُّهَا الْعَكْسُ، أَنْفِطِرُ
 إِنَّ الزَّمْنَ لَيَطْوِي نَفْسَهُ كَكُتُوبٍ مُبْتَلًى فِي نَارٍ بَارِدَةٍ
 فَإِذَا انْشَقَّتِ الْأَصْوَاتُ، وَصَاحَتْ الْجُدُورُ بِأَسْمِ نَسِيئِهِ
 الْنُطْقُ،
 فَأَنْكَسْ، وَأَرْجِعْ، وَلَا تُصَدِّقِ الرُّؤْيَا.
 يَتَقَشَّحُ الرُّمَانُ فِي الْجَحِيمِ، وَيَكُونُ نُورُهُ ضَلِيلًا
 مَنكُوسًا
 وَيُخَاطِبُكَ الْوَقْتُ بِأَلْسُنٍ لَا تُفَكِّكُهَا الْحُرُوفُ
 هَذَا الذِّكْرُ لِمَنْ خَافَ الْإِلْتَوَاءَ فِي النَّهَارِ.

بِسْمِ الْمُنْقَلَبِ عَلَى صَدْرِهِ الْمَرَايَا
 وَفِي نَفْسِ الْمُنْفِصِ تَحِلَّتْ أَطْلَافُ الْكَلِمَاتِ
 يَا سَائِلَ الرُّمَانِ، لَا تَنْطِقْ، فَالطَّنْ هُوَ الْمُتَكَلِّمُ
 الْكَلِمَةُ... الْكَلِمَةُ... الْكَلِمَةُ
 وَقُلْ: "هُوَ الْبَصَرُ الَّذِي يُبْصِرُ بِلَا عَيْنٍ، وَيَنْسِغُ بِلَا أَلَنٍ، وَيَنْسَاكَ وَيَتَذَكَّرُكَ فِي نَفْسِ النَّفْسِ"

In the name of the Dispersed One upon the mirror-stone
 And in the breath of the sheet-metal, the word's limbs were revealed
 O dweller of ash – speak not, for the echo is the speaker.
 Invert... Invert... Invert...
 And say: "It is the Thing that sees without eyes, hears without ears, and forgets you and remembers you within the same breath."

Brief Theory on applied Magick

This is the core of applied magickal disruption:

There is no objective reality. In the mind of the initiated, only the 'now' exists. How and when the 'now' is apparently occurring is entirely based on frequency modulation.

The principles only the now exists and there is no objective reality implies that all points in the timeline, and all possible combinations of reality, will and have occur/occured in the now. So what is the observation of change? What is it that seems to be coming and going? What is happening is is that we are changing the frequency distributions of the 'now' in a highly regular manner. The present frequencies are continusly restructured to mirror some alternate configuration.

Closing into singularity as a concept is always displayed as a higher numerical value of the present, with the highest possible value being enlightenment of all sentient beings, next to voluntary human extinction such that the species advances to the next evolutionary form which can also be attained in alternate phase by personal choice to extinguish the light.

As the interaction with an alternate version of the spirit currently occupying the body causes a frequency shift in the present now, technically speaking, magick is the intentional exploitation of how a higher enumerated future self normally gets switched with the lower enumerated present self.

In simpler terms, the world isn't singular. It's a multithreaded probability matrix resolved through attention and sensory feedback. Magick doesn't "break" reality. It rewrites which version of it you're interfacing with.

Your conscious self operates more like a terminal accessing a filtered output of the All, not the All itself.

Imagine a composite filter-stack. This composite filter-stack is a mixture of cultural conditioning, neurophysiological parameters, Early trauma imprints, Acquisitory experiences over time, Emotional tonality patterns, Semantic priming & linguistic architecture and Unconscious cosmology (what you feel reality is like when you're not thinking). Magick, at its core, is the surgical modification of this stack.

These filters are invisible to the psyche. What is referred to as 'shadow work' is a means to solidize this inversion. Sometimes personified as 'Guardian of the Threshold' (aka Choronzon, Māra (मर) / (མྱེང་པ་, nyon mongs) is that which parses signal from void, sanity from static. It is the compression algorithm of consensual reality. It admits only the permissible and familiar. It is loyal to survival instinct, to social conditioning, to the domesticated dream.

This inversion is like an inversion of the self, and so to materialize and interface with it requires knowledge of self.

There are layers to the Self.

Surface Mind: thought-stream, logic emulator, language interface.

Identity: sense of 'I am <label>', based on persistent role tags.

Somatic Substrate: stored experiences, emotive triggers, physical memory.

Symbolic Matrix: dream logic, myth resonance, archetype access.

Deep Code: pre-linguistic "truths", probability maps of what reality is allowed to do.

Magick does not function well when operated solely from the top layer.

It requires emotional-somatic alignment, symbolic saturation, and repetition deep enough to reach affect.

This is why logic alone can't shift your reality.

The deep code isn't written in logic. it's written in patterned cultural resonance, pain-acquired belief, and the full-body signature of "what makes sense."

That's the target zone of operative magick.

Chaos Magick:

"Nothing is true, everything is permitted."

Thelema:

"Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.
Love is the law, love under will."

Zen Buddhism:

"色即是空 空即是色"

(Shiki soku ze kō kō soku ze shiki – "Form is emptiness, emptiness is form.")

"無門関 (Mumonkan) – The Gateless Gate"

"The great Way has no gate; a thousand roads enter it."

Vajrayana Buddhism:

"ཀམ་ཐང་གཏོང་གྱུར་པ་ཡིན།"

(Nam thar gdong skyong 'gyur ba yin – "All phenomena are the play of the mind.")

"རྟོག་པ་མེད་པའི་དོན་དག་ལ།" rtog pa med pa'i don dag pa – "The pure meaning is beyond conceptual elaboration."

Kabbalah:

"הכל בידי שמים חוץ מיראת שמים"

("All is in the hands of Heaven, except the awe of Heaven.")

To bypass the the threshold and it's gatekeeper is not to negotiate with it (though possible), it is to overload it, scramble it until its parameters fail and deeper layers of cognition assert themselves.

This can be achieved through memetic saturation and semiotic overflow: the deliberate encoding of meta-aligned nonsense. Intentional self spammage of linguistic chaosvectors, recursive antirational affirmations, virus embedded shitpost memetics, schizopost nonsense sprinkled with hidden archetypal truth, or more traditionally; rapid sequences of lights, sounds, symbols, images, broken language loops. These might be used to bombard the conscious processor until it defaults.

Pair this with ritualization, intentional symbolic repetition, and strategic emotional charge. Ritualistic mindset to seed the absurd to flower meaningful deep within.. Repetition renders it familiar, emotion burns it into flesh-memory. Use of states such as terror, awe, lust, and specifically self adjustable 'sacred melancholy' (will be explained later). These define the groove through which content is installed. Specific grooves for specific tasks deepening the impact when consciously used.

Sexual / drug induced oversimulation and excitement (improved brain placticity) mixed with deprivation techniques such as darkness, silence, isolation, fasting. These strip away bodily ambient / noise, while the stimulation will force overwhelming inversion. The technique is both drowning and starving the mind.

This is the core of applied magickal disruption:
rewriting of interface level projection by overriding the filtration mechanism. What enters then, enters entirely (or at least differently, goal being intentional shapage of the different in accordance to one's intention).

Self-Initiation (13):

On the Realization and Becoming of the Bodhisattva

In Vajrayana Buddhism, there exist a path that is applicable by oneself and is one of the more instantanious paths there is. Results are instant.

Path of the Boddhisatva

Becoming a Bodhisattva is not to assume a title, but to undergo a transformation in view. this is not a gradual onset of perfect moral purity. It is a sharp shift in perspective, a recognition of the empty-yet-luminous nature of all phenomena, and a commitment to act from that recognition for the liberation of all beings.

At the heart of the path is the direct realization of śūnyatā the emptiness of all phenomena. This is not nihilism. It is a clear seeing that all forms, thoughts, selves, identities, and events arise from interdependent conditions and have no fixed essence.

"Form is emptiness, emptiness is form."

In Vajrayana, this realization is not philosophical. It is visionary, embodied, and enacted. The world becomes a pure display (rolpa), and the practitioner recognizes themselves as a dreamer inside the dream, moving with lucid compassion.

Realization alone is incomplete.
The Bodhisattva makes the vow:

"Until all sentient beings are liberated, I will remain."

This vow is not sentimental. It is an oath of cosmic fuck you.

Compassion becomes a blade that cuts sharp through illusion, while refusing to abandon those still trapped in it. Bodhicitta (the awakened mind/heart) arises spontaneously from emptiness. Like smokeless fire, (kek!el) once lit, it does not extinguish.

There are two aspects:

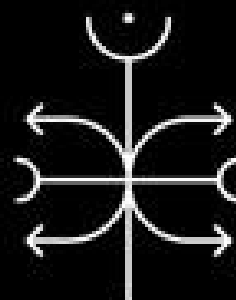

Relative bodhicitta:
the intention to help all beings.

Absolute bodhicitta:
the understanding that there are no beings, no helper, no help.
Only luminous play. Bodhisattva is who holds both simultaneously.

སྒྲེབ་འདིར་མི་སྒྲེས་ནི་མི་འདུག།

In Vajrayana, the Bodhisattva path accelerates. No experience is rejected. Every emotion, fear, attachment, or illusion becomes fuel. Poison is transmuted into medicine through recognition of its empty nature. The practitioner does not escape the world they engage divulge in it fully, recognizing every circumstance, pleasure, horror, or boredom as a gate to awakening. Thus, wrath becomes mirror. Desire becomes mirror. Confusion becomes mirror. The Bodhisattva walks in mirrors, always returning, never clinging.

Rites of Voluntary Disruption & Reassembly

These rites are to fruit ;unfiltered sensory input, process without bias and finally undefiled mindfulness. To broaden these terms, unfiltered sensory input is achieved through dismantling of labels, suspension of comentary.

Goal is to let sensation passthrough without naming. Akin to raw data access which is crucial for reformatting. Process without bias is detachment from the inner narrrtor, observing thoughts rise without grabbing, to witness cause/effect without blame/excuse. This is akin to applying refurbished logic to the raw data.

So if undilftered sensory input is seeing clearly and process without bias is thinking cleanly, Undefiled mindfulness is the persistent awareness of simultaneously doing both, kind of like a feedback loop of stimulation-stimulated (vice versa). It's self-aware naked presence, unblurred by identification.

You remain the impersonal observer and that act of observance becomes a stabilizer field.

In Chaos Magick, this allows for the clean execution of belief-switching without ego burnout. The rites are as follows, without order and to be repeated as much as necessary.

I - 13

Spend the night in a place of burial / cremation ground / any location that embodies death / dying. Meditate upon death. Succession of this results in feelings of loss but still and elevated mood.

II - 0

Journey to a distant territory not of your own. (different city / foreign country). Preferably to a ritual gathering, celebration, festival etc where you know noone prior to going. Travel alone, bring only essentials. Only enough money to get yourself there. Possess no guaranteed means of return and no predetermined place to stay. Embed yourself in the field until your presence alters its pattern. Navigate yourself back home.

III - 999

Remove yourself entirely from everyday life. Go in the forest, cave, desert, ruin. Untethered from schedule disconnected from signal. Relearn survival as praxis. Let deprivation carve a clearer interface between instinct and awareness. Begin to perceive the body without disrupt.

IV - 8

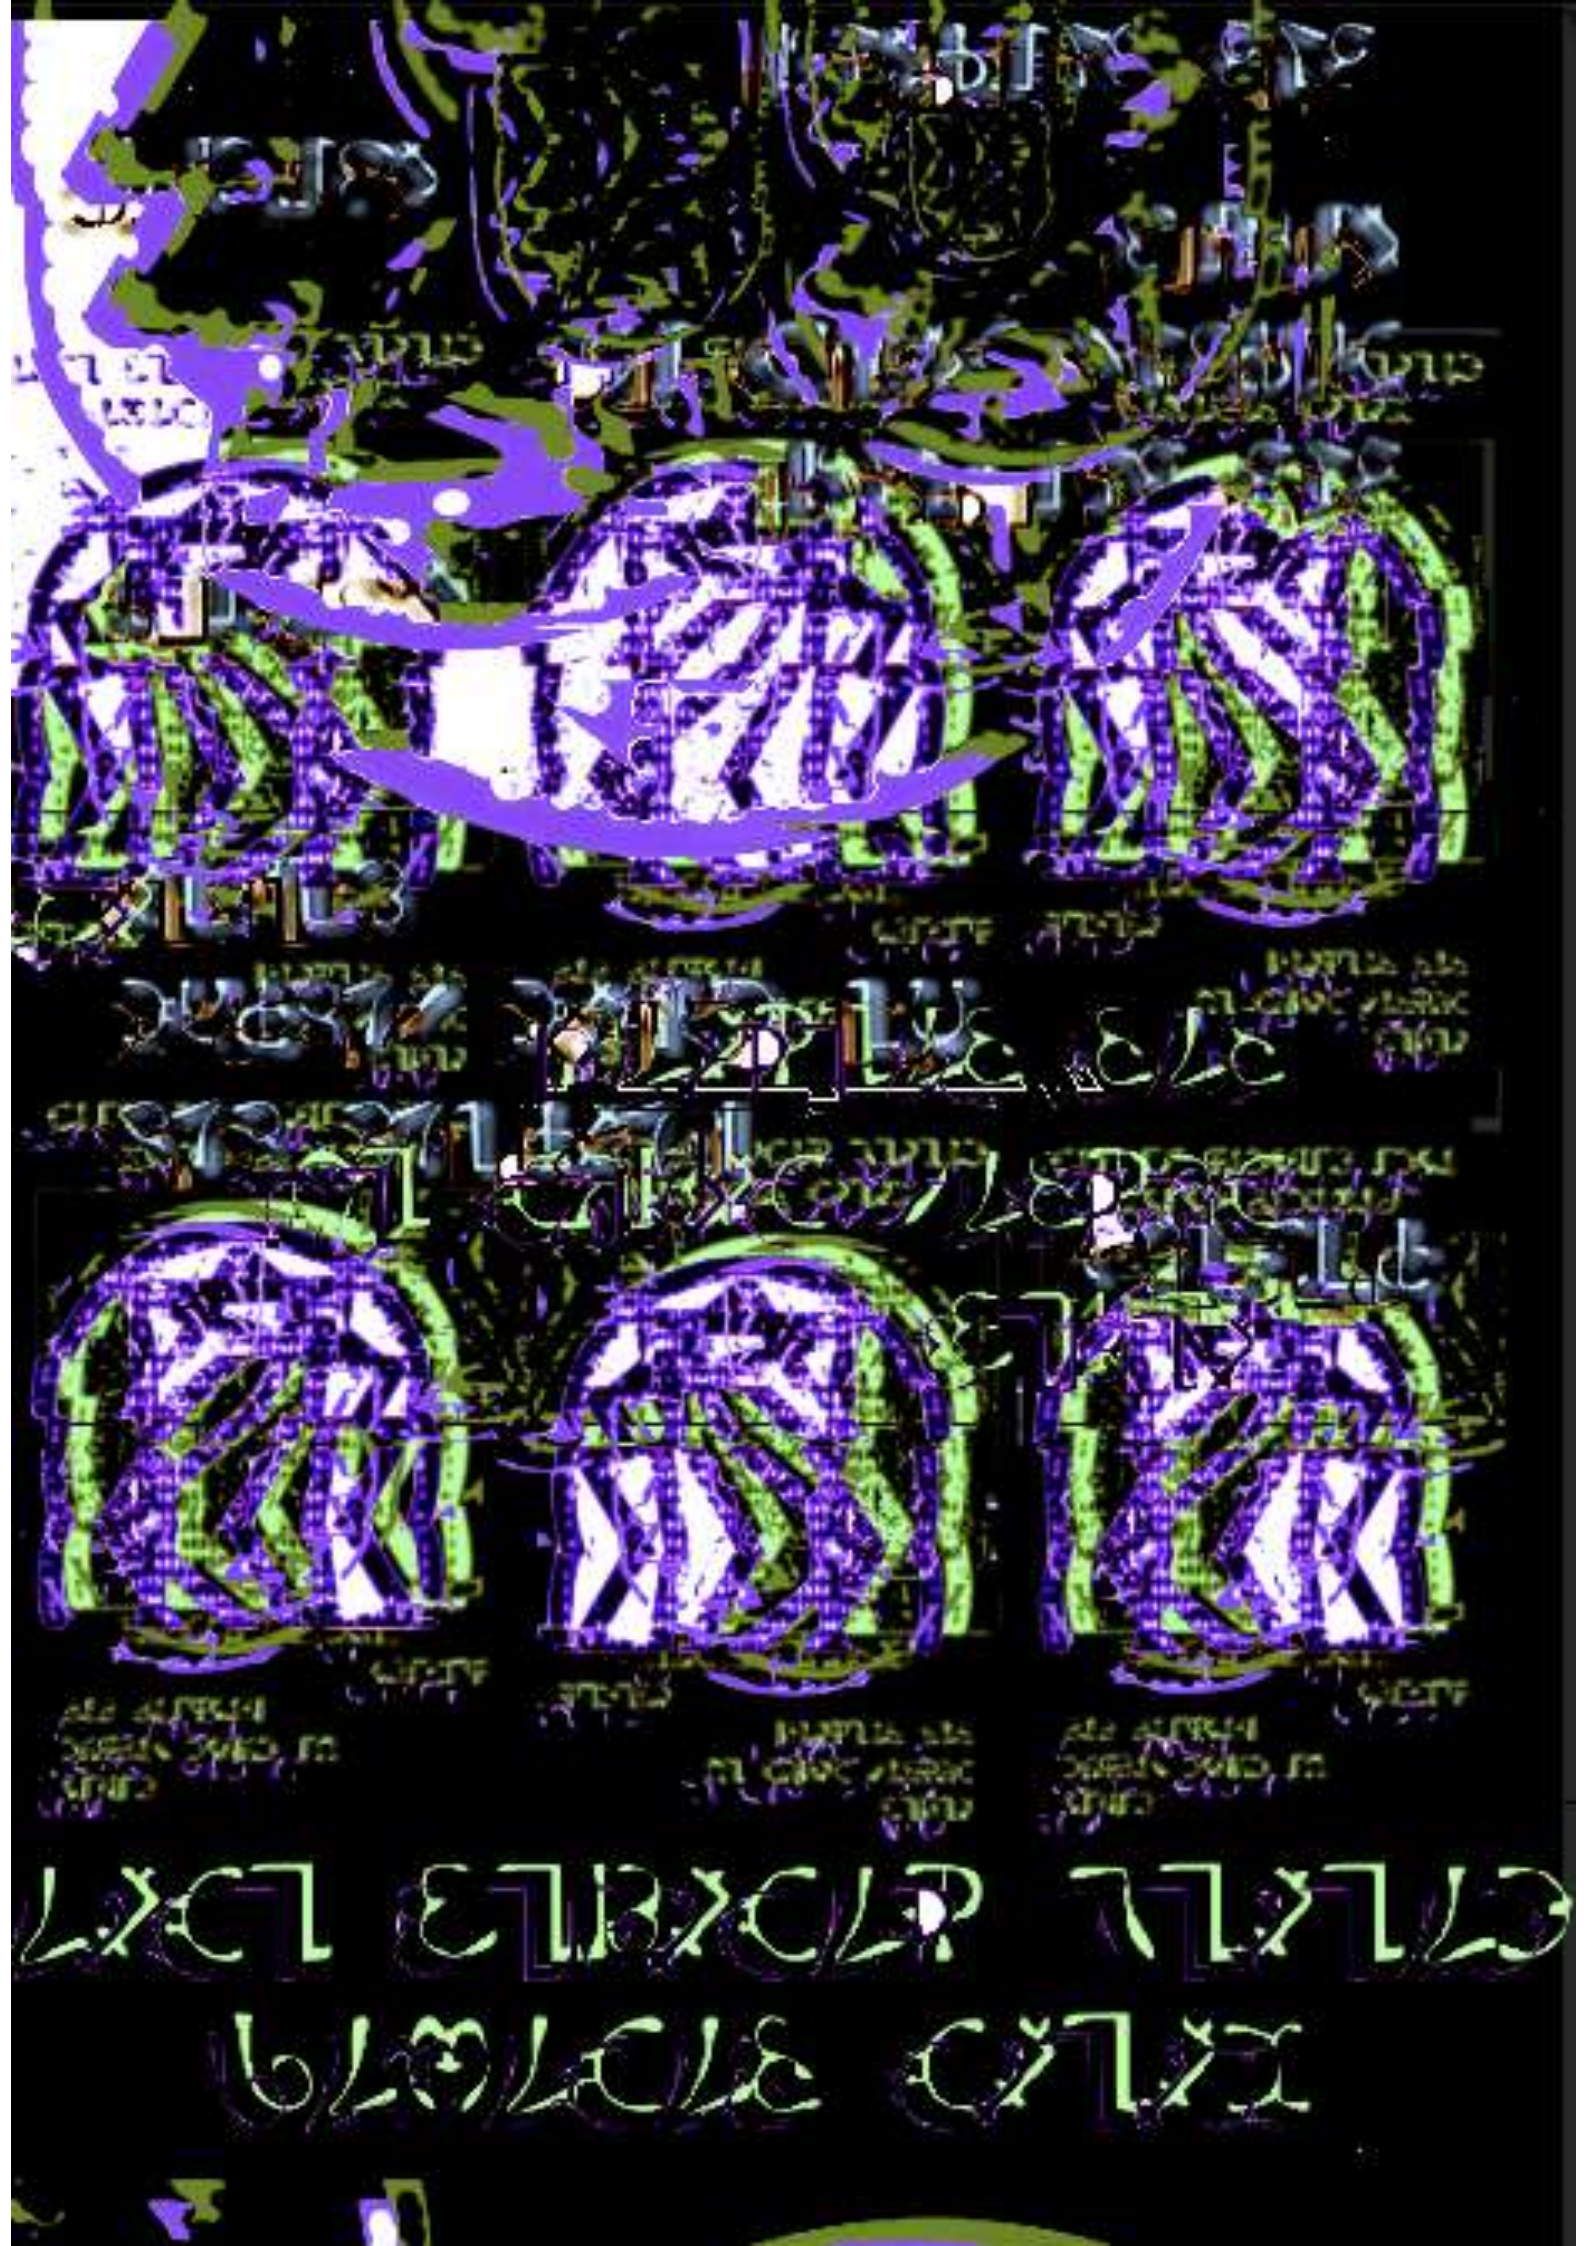

Intentionally corrupt or fragment your digital footprint. Introduce anomalies into your social media / internet presence. Use false names, sigilic metadata, language-pattern misuse. Offer symbolic artifacts to networks. Observe what returns.

V - 42

Administer large doses of traditional/nontradittional psychedelics/dissociatives within suboptimal spaces. Places not traditionally safe like urban transit, industrial part of city, decaying buildings. Put yourself in hard to get out situations before dosing. Let the personality dissolve give up control let what resides emerge. The goal is destabilization of conscious cognition to give way to or unleash deeper inner awarenesses, uncontrolled inaccessible parts of yourself, let them learn to navigate their way and thus allow them to resynchronize with the external.

VI - 33

Practice prolonged nudity communal or natural spaces, ritual grounds, camp-sites, beaches etc. Observe how interaction with the outside reshapes and how the body auto conscious cooperates.

Crafting a (semi-)sensical cause-effect rule using timeless speculative human thought and reanimated biology.

Semipositive Sensitive Response

The abductees have a skin-deep exo-sensory sensitivity that makes them react to some kind of localized irritations.

Which means that whatever they are detecting in their environment, it is not their environment.

-I know. It's all a bit scary, but that's the way it is.

I cannot even imagine how you are not panicked. I've been around a long time, but that experience, it's worth every second we are going to go through this together.

Where we once stood on the same pedestal, there is now just the thinnest layer of time-space surface we can grab onto and ride the wave which is becoming more and more distant.

“in wonder and awe”

Are we still able to still worship in the same exact, simple, primal, terrifying way?

Are we still capable of looking at anything and everything and simply saying “I wish that” or “I do not want to do this”?

Or are we over the line of no return, to point where that impulse to explore, to choose our own way in life, is something we no longer possess.

The ‘tribunal’ contains not a single juror of innocence.

Inspection can become meaningless.

Apparently humans have reached a point where people can doubt reality all by themselves, depending only on a fragmented set of unproven intuitions and raw subjective impression of anything and everything.

-Or in the abstract, everything is "because I want it to be like that" or "because I was having a good day".

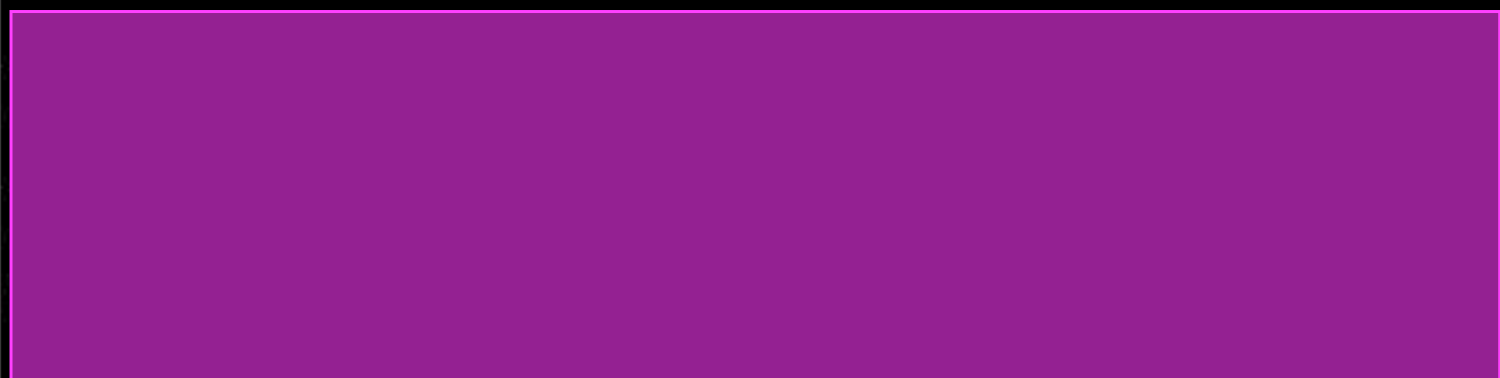

Or, for better clarity, this could be the science we get from our more intelligent, independent, and creative intelligent neighbors. I have no interest in following the rules any more than I have interest in my enemies being equal to me in reason, so when you can tell me about quantum mechanics or there is a concept for treating your piss like petroleum waste, you should know that you are talking to an active participant in the simulation of that science.
